CAPTURING PLACEMENT

If a die is placed horizontally or vertically adjacent to two dice, and the sum of the pip counts on those two dice is six or less, then the currently played die must equal the sum of its two adjacent dice.

The currently played die will remove those two dice from the board immediately, while it is still his turn.

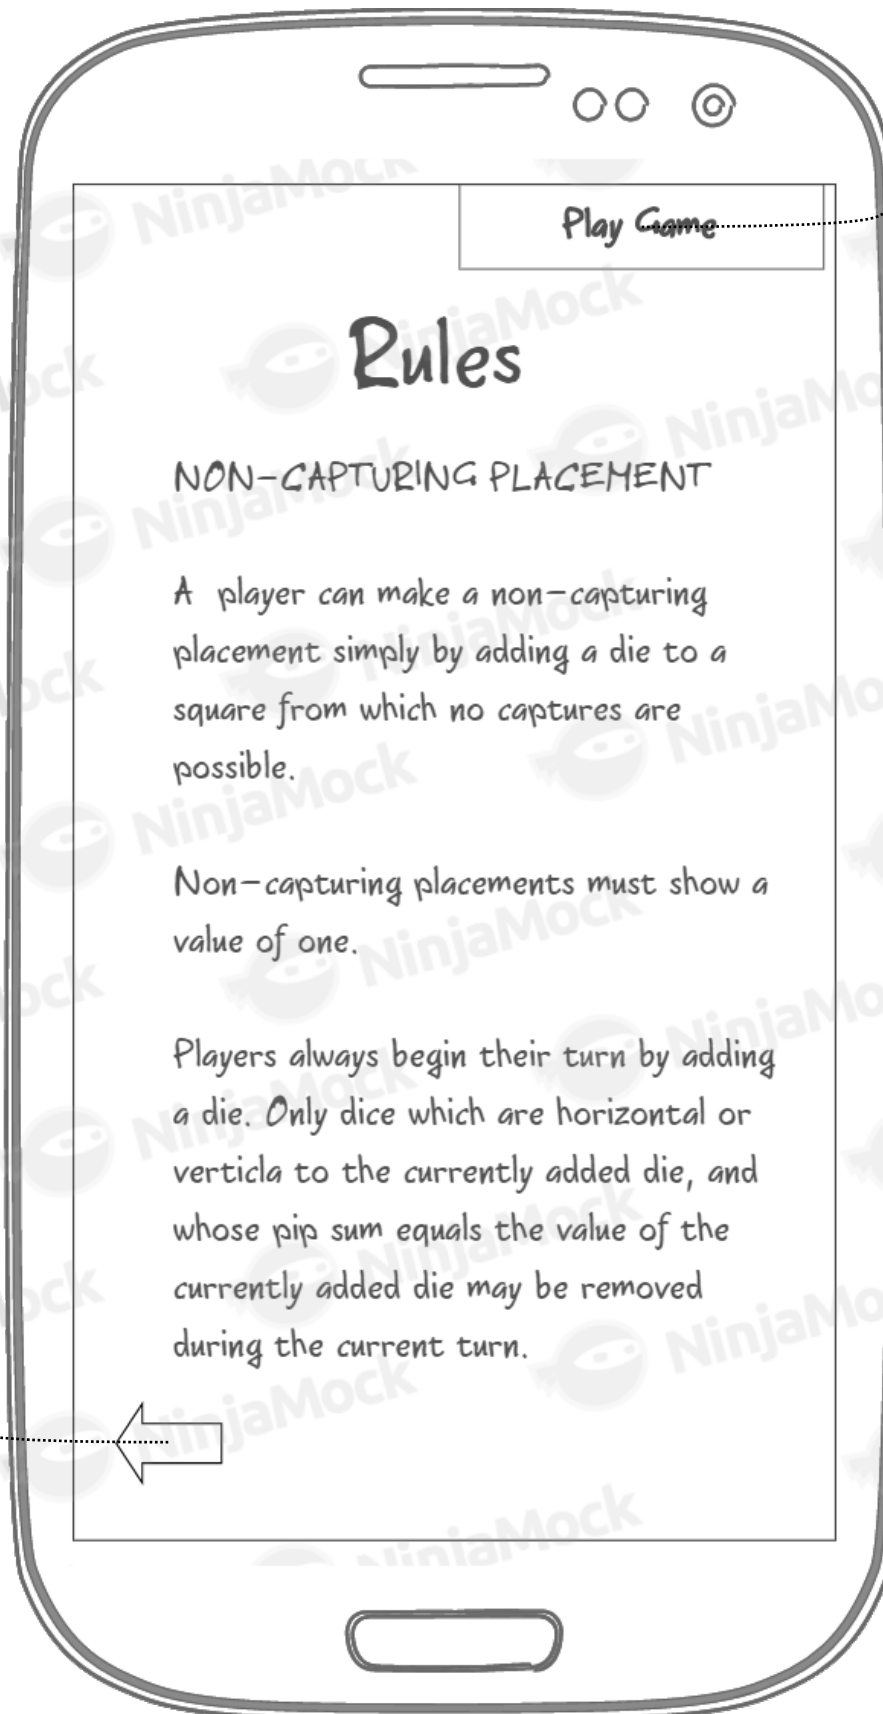

Dice of either or both colors can be captured by a die of either color.

Captured dice are set aside and reclaimed by their owners.
